Railroad Commission, are in town and will proceed to organize.

Civil Engineer F. P. Trott and family and Mrs. J. O. Dunbar and family left yesterday for a short trip to the hills.

are in Denver on Diamond Jo Reynold's estate matters. They are expected at Phoenix in the course of a week.

Hon. Jack O'Brien, member of the Railroad Commission, is in the city attending the organization of that board. Jack is one of the most popular boys in the Territory, and deservedly so.

Messrs. C. C. Carpenter and J. A. Clark, of the Santa Fe road, the former at El Paso and the latter at New York, leaves this morning. They are well known in Phoenix and have done much for this valley.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Mrs. Kate S. Thomas has filed suit against William H. Thomas for divorce.

At the union services, Washington Methodist Episcopal Church, Rev. D. F. Fuller will preach this evening. All are invited.

The Railroad Commission met yesterday and organized. R. W. Wood was elected president, Judge Lighthauser, secretary. They then adjourned until September.

About 8:30 o'clock last night the clouds were black overhead and repeated flashes of lightning told that we would soon have rain. Suddenly the electric lights went out and remained so for the rest of the night.

Two Five Teal Boxes Found At Yuma A Short Time Ago.

A short time ago two five-tael boxes of opium, worth about $20 each, were picked up in an obscure spot within the town limits of Yuma. They bore no marks of having passed through a United States custom house.

Yuma presents an inviting field for the operations of the opium smuggler. It is 200 miles in any direction to any any other town. The Mexican boundary line is from eight to 20 miles distant. The Southern Pacific railroad gives rapid communication with San Fraucisco, the great market for the drug. The Colorado river flows past Yuma and on into the Gulf of California; small boats go up and down the river, and communication is almost as free as if no boundary line existed. Land travel is equally as free between Ynms and the Mexican State of Sonora.

For moral effect a custom house is maintained at Yuma in charge of a deputy collector who is not required to leave his office. The inspector was some months ago transferred to Nogales. There is not a line rider nearer than 125 miles. For more than 100 miles each side of the Colorado river the boundary line is unprotected.

With a duty of $12 a pound on opium and the drug selling at $20, it is not supposed that the smuggler has lost sight of the advantages of the Gulf of California route into the United States. English tramp steamers call at all Mexican Pacific ports. Mexico, is rather appears. Pacific ports, Mexico is rather encour-aging Chinese immigration or at least place no restrictions upon it. With the co-operation of men who understand navigating the Gulf of California and Colorado river it would not be a difficult navigating the Gulf of California and Colorado river it would not be a difficult matter to establish a line of unlawful rade from Hong Kong to Yuma. It of today, It is being shipped to all parts of the world. A large supply on hand at Goldman & Co's. tion for a couple of bronzed miners to get on the cars at Yuma, El Rio or Ogil-by with their packs. There is but little risk in taking the drug into San Fran-cisco as the customs officials are too busy watching the Oriental steamers.

I commenced putting them up (I mean those Blood and Liver Pills,) in Portland, and had a boy distribute a sample. to each house. A curious juvenileabout five years old-followed my boy and gathered up the samples. They were sugar-coated and he tackled the whole collection in his neighborhood. That night there was a sad household, but they saved most of the boy. Next day I received an extended lecture from his dear mama, but I so convinced her of their value when taken according to directions, that she used and afterwards endorsed them highly. You know what they're for-any blood or liver trouble, headache, lassitude, and all that sort of thing, and they do the work better and easier than anything
